Arthur C. Jensen

Arthur C. Jensen passed away very unexpectedly last Thursday forenoon of a heart attack at his home in Randolph.

Mr. Jensen was born in July, 1884 at Albert Lea, Minn. At the age of one year he moved with his parents to a farm east of Langford, where he grew to young manhood. In 1915 he was united in marriage to Frances Lawrence. To this union two children were born.

Mr. Jensen was a grain buyer at Langford for six years, and at Raville, S. D., thirteen years, and in February, 1934, he with his family moved to Randolph, where he bought grain for the South Dakota Wheat Growers Association up until his death.

Immediate survivors are his wife; one son, Melvin Lawrence Jensen of Henry, S. D.; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Louisa Brown of Randolph; three grandchildren; two brothers, and one sister of Langford; five nieces, and three nephews. His parents, three brothers and one sister preceded him in death.
